

Community Christmas Plans Include Lighting Contest, Carol Singing, Distribution of Gifts to Children

Community Christmas plans for Mokena include the yule lighting contest and the caroling and distribution of small gifts at the village Christmas tree.

Judges of the Christmas lighting contest will make their rounds of the Mokena area next Wednesday night, Dec. 21 between 7:30 and 9 o'clock and then award prizes.

Fifteen dollars will be awarded for first prize, $10 for second and $5 for third prize. The first two given honorable mention will receive certificates.

Raymond Hoolehan is chairman of the committee in charge of the lighting contest, which, like the community tree and carol sing, is sponsored by the Mokena Civic Association.

Mr. Hoolehan asks that persons living on the outskirts of the village, who plan to enter the lighting contest, contact T. Arthur Shoop at Mokena 2571 or the Hoolehan home, 4851.

"We don't want the judges to miss anyone," Mr. Hoolehan explained.

The judges have not been selected as yet, it was said.

The Christmas tree party is to be held a week from tomorrow night, Dec. 23.

The tree, which has been erected on the Pock Island lot, across the street, west, from the Bolman drive store, was donated by the New Lenox Lumber Co., thru arrangements by Charles Swanberg.

Santa Claus also will be on hand to distribute the gifts to the youngsters.

All the favorite carols will be sung.

This is a party by the village, of the village and for the village but of course their friends are welcome and the committee in charge is hopeful of a large attendance.

Plan to Build Church Awaits Members Consent

At the meeting of the official board of the Frankfort Methodist church Dec. 5, the report of the new building committee, in which they recommended the building of a new structure on a new site, was accepted.

The board plans to call a congregational meeting sometime in January at which time the board and congregation will discuss the above recommendations and take action on it as the congregation deems best. Before any action can be taken on the recommendation, the congregation must approve of it, according to the law of the church. To date, there has been no action taken except by the board in accepting the survey report.

The affair is to be held in the hall of the new school building—115th ave. and 195th st.—in Sunny Acres, and it is to be a merry one in keeping with the season.

Good St. Nicholas will be there, not only to distribute gifts but to talk with the youngsters and who knows but what some of these chats may settle very momentous problems confronting parents and other relatives, as well as small fry.

But Santa will not be the only one pass out gifts at the school party. There are to be a number of prizes to be awarded, including a high fidelity phonograph, a portable washing machine and a clock-kitchen or alarm.

The public will be welcome, as was announced by William Weber, Jr., a student at Loyola U., who is president of the Teen club. The affair is scheduled to begin at 7:30 and there will be singing, dancing and a Christmas play.

The annual gift exchange by the pupils will be carried out earlier in the day.

The Sisters who operate the school are delighted with the room, comfort and conveniences of the new school. The new St. Mary's school opened only a couple of weeks ago and is sort of Christmas present for them itself.

Two Girls Win Essay Contest Sponsored by Amvets Auxiliary

Two girls won the essay contest sponsored in Mokena by the Amvets auxiliary during "Know Your America" week preceding Thanksgiving. The subject was "Consider the Blessings of Democracy."

They are, Carole Egness, of the Mokena public school, and Carolyn Rinke, a pupil at St. Mary's parochial school; each of whom will receive $5.

The essay contest was held in conjunction with the Americanism and civil defense program sponsored by the All-American Conference to Combat Communism, an organization of which the Amvets auxiliary is a member.

The essay contest held in Mokena was limited to pupils in the seventh and eighth grades of the public and parochial schools. Mrs. Andrew Zink was chairman of the committee in charge.

There was a large number of essays turned in so the judges had a difficult task.

The winning essay read as follows:

By Carole Egness
Mokena Grade School

Until a few days ago my life was that of an ordinary school girl, but now I feel that I have been given a new meaning, knowing I have to go to school every day in a class room.

The I began to realize that most Americans take everything for granted. Being able to go to school was really a privilege that all American children had.

To hear most children speak about school you would think that they dreaded to go, but deep down in their hearts they are grateful for having the opportunity to go.

I once heard a story about a man living in the communist area of Asia. It happened that he had spoken against the communist officials and was immediately taken away from his family and friends and never heard of again.

Here in America, people never have to be afraid to say what they believe. Getting out to vote in elections is always encouraged, which makes our country one of the few which the people are allowed to say so much in the government.

The people of America have always enjoyed religious freedom. And to this day, three hundred years after the pilgrims first came here, people are still free to attend the church of their beliefs without having to do it secretly.

Recently the way so many people have prayed for President Eisenhower during his crucial moments has shown that all over the country—Protestant, Catholic, negro or white—the same idea of freedom is expressed in the hearts of all the people in the United States of America.

Mokena Library Puts All Childrens' Books of Free List

The Mokena Book club met last Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Hugo Niethammer and heard a book report given by Mrs. Fred Lehmann. The book reviewed was "The Challenge of Man's Future" by Harrison Brown.

In the business session of their meeting, the members voted to permit all books on the children's shelves to be loaned out without charge in the future. The library, located at 34 E. Front st., is open every Wednesday night instead of one, thus giving quicker service. Mrs. Walter Shewski, president of the Book club, announced the addition of two new members to the club, Mrs. Ralph D. Thompson and Mrs. Clarence Miller.

Everyone is invited to visit the library and become borrowers by asking for a library card. The card is free.

Hold Last Rites For David Murray; Died Suddenly

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran church in Lockport for David G. Murray, aged 79, who has lived his entire life in this area.

Born in DuPage twp. Jan. 1, 1876, the family moved to Homer twp. when Dave was a young lad and they lived for several years on the farm now occupied by the Blasius Buck family. At that time they were active in Homer Sunday school and Christian Endeavor. Later they moved to the farm where the Frank Milnes now live and operated a retail dairy. Since that time he has lived in Lockport where he was for some time supervisor and for 28 years he was employed as a guard at Illinois state penitentiary.

He was a member of Trinity Lutheran church and of Lockport Lodge, No. 583, AF and AM, and Sarah D. Moon chapter of the Eastern Star.

He died suddenly Dec. 5 in his home on East 13th St., following a stroke.

He is survived by his widow Emma; a son, Harold; three grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Tena Krieger, Betherville, Iowa; Mrs. Thomas Galloway (Lillian) of Burlington, N. J. and Mrs. Georgia Wallace, Pasadena, Cal.

Masonic services were conducted in the Goodale funeral home Wednesday evening, with final rites Thursday with the Rev. Gilbert Beston officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn Memorial park, Joliet.

He was first elected to the office in 1940. He is well known among other county officials in the state and has not only served as secretary and later president of the Circuit Clerk's association but also has served as president of the Illinois Association of County Officials. He is a native of Joliet and resides there. Mr. Wunder is married and has two small daughters.

State's Attorney Masters was first elected to public office in 1952 and in 1956 will complete his first term. He has been practicing law for the past 18 years and is a member of the Joliet law firm of Robson, Masters and Ryan.

Just prior to his election Mr. Masters had his own law office and before that was associated with the law firm of Gray, Thomas and Wallace. He too is a native of Joliet and lives in that city. Mr. Masters is married and has two sons.

In addition to the prosecution of criminal cases, Mr. Masters has also served as counsel for the various elected officials and legal advisor of the county board. His record as state's attorney, observers say, has been excellent.

County Recorder Robert L. Spreitzer, seeking reelection, has had a busy time since he has held the office. Records show that since 1940 he has handled more than $412,000,000 in gross receipts and that he has returned to the people of the county more than $155,000 in excess earnings. Spreitzer is another who knows all the phases of his office. He too is a native of Joliet and makes his residence there. Mr. Spreitzer is married and has five children. He is a former president of the Illinois Records association. Spreitzer has been commended for his operation of the recorder's office.

County Auditor Lundquist, elected four years ago to the post, is eminently fitted for the office, observers say, pointing out that he was teller and auditor for the First National Bank of Joliet 14 years, office manager and accountant for the Joliet Motor Co. for 11 and was associated with F. Munchall, accountant, for 10 years. He is the only county auditor, as far as is known, who was an auditor by profession. Lundquist is treasurer of the John Ericsson Republican club and vice president of the Illinois County Auditors association. A former amateur ballplayer he is a member of the Old Timers Baseball association and also maintains an active interest in the little league.

He too is a resident of Joliet, is married and has a son and two daughters.

Coroner Willard G. Blood is a veteran of World War two, in which he served in the medical corps for five years. He entered as a private and was discharged a captain.

Before he was elected coroner in 1948 he had served as a deputy coroner nine years and so is thoroughly familiar with the demands of the office.

In 1947 he became associated with Harry W. Grant and the two operate the Blood and Grant funeral home in Joliet. Since becoming coroner Mr. Blood has spent considerable study on a criminal investigation. He is a resident of Joliet, is married and has two daughters.

More than 50 per cent of the electric power produced by 13 electric utilities in New Jersey in 1954 was generated in steam-fired plants.

More Teachers Will be Needed in Colleges

"There is not segment of American life that does not have a stake in the maintenance of faculty excellence in higher education," Pres. David D. Henry of the University of Illinois says, pointing out that increasing college enrollments may bring teacher shortages on the campuses.

Estimates based on birth rate and enrollment in lower schools indicate doubled college enrollments by 1970. The lowest estimate of additional staff need is 50,000, highest 250,000.

Pres. Henry urged encouragement of young people who may consider teaching careers. This is a matter, he said, not only for educators and college administrators, but for business, industry, and the public.

"Staffing will be the biggest 'bottle neck' for colleges in the expansion ahead, and the most difficult problem to solve," he said. "Quality in higher education will suffer unless we recruit more effectively for college teaching and plan more realistically to find new methods of teaching and organization."

"In this day of shortages in all categories of professional services, including teaching, failure at the source of supply can have a catastrophic effect upon all aspects of American life."

"Since higher education is central in the discovery of new knowledge, in its dissemination, and in the recruitment of young people for professional service, there is not a segment of American life that does not have a stake in the maintenance of faculty excellence in higher education."

Mary Ann Rinke, Wayne Ryder Exchange Vows in Mokena Church

Married at a double ring ceremony on November 20, in St. Mary's Catholic church at Mokena, were Miss Mary Ann Rinke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rinke of Mokena and Wayne Ryder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ryder of Wonder Lake, Ill.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Father Cecil Koop. Mr. John Marce, organist, accompanied Mrs. James Heiman, cousin of the bride, when she sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer." She also sang "Mother at Your Feet I'm Kneeling" as the bride placed a bouquet of white flowers on the altar of the Blessed Virgin and then knelt before it in silent meditation.

Escorted by her father to an altar decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums, the bride wore a princess style gown of imported lace and tulle trimmed with delicate sequin embroidery on the bodice and bouffant skirt which flowed into a Cathedral length train of nylon tulle over satin. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion net fell from a pearl and sequin embroidered petal shaped cap of satin and tulle. She carried a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis and her pearl necklace and matching earrings were a gift of the groom.

Miss Patricia Heldman of Lockport, maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of bronze crystalite fashioned with a pleated yoke and cap sleeves. A headpiece and short gloves of crystalite completed her attire. Her pearl choker and earrings were gifts of the bride. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums as did the other attendants. Bridesmaid was Miss Gladys Rinke, sister of the bride.

whose gown of burnt orange crystalite was fashioned identical to that of the maid of honor. Miss Carolyn Rinke and Miss Barbara Ryder, younger sisters of the bride and groom respectively, were Junior bridesmaids.

Walking together, they wore gowns fashioned as the others but of gold crystalite thus completing the beautiful autumn colors of this late fall wedding.

Mr. Edward Busse of McHenry, was best man. Ushers were: Robert Ryder, Crown Point, Ind. George Rinke and James Heiman, Joliet.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in St. Mary's hall. Decorating the bridal table were arrangements of yellow and white mums with lilies of the valley on each side of lighted tapers. A buffet supper was served to 200 guests with Miss Doris Cummins serving the wedding cake and Miss Rita Werner presiding at the coffee service. As the bride couple cut their four tiered wedding cake, a group of Sorority sisters of the bride sang the Alpha Sigma Alpha sweetheart song.

The bride's mother wore a green French crepe dress with brown accessories and a yellow corsage. The groom's mother chose a midnight blue dress with matching accessories and a white corsage.

For traveling on a honeymoon in Kentucky the new Mrs. Ryder selected a brown silk faille dress with winter white hat and brown accessories. They are now residing at Crystal Lake, Ill., where Mrs. Ryder is teaching in the Prairie Grove school. The groom is employed at Busse Motors in nearby McHenry.

St. Philomena church, Chicago, was the setting for the double ring ceremony read by Father Kupinski. Sister Rosemary played the organ and accompanied Douglas Aden who sang "I Love Thee Oh Mary" and "Ave Maria."

Frankfort Man Will Appear on Bowling Telecast

Two members of Caterpillar plant bowling teams will appear on the "Big League Bowling" TV show in Chicago Sunday night, Dec. 18, to try their luck against the Automatic Transportation kieglers who will be making their sixth appearance this week-end.

One of the challengers is Charley Darrington, of Frankfort, and the other is Harvey Sorenson, of Joliet.

Darrington bowls in three Joliet leagues—Bowl-Era Majors, Bowl-Era Merchants Classic and the Janekie Majors, and has a composite average of near 190. His high three-game series, rolled some years ago, is 817 and he has rolled two 300 games since he began bowling in 1938.

Sorenson has been bowling for a number of years and he two is appearing in three leagues this season in Joliet, with an average of better than 200 in tournament play. His high series is a 737 and his top single game a 297. In 1946 he finished 42nd in the Peterson Classic which attracted all the top kieglers in the country.

Sorenson is known among his competitors as a "money bowler," so he should like the show Sunday night. There is a lot of loot to be had if one can knock down enough pins, including a 1956 car.

Don Sarff, a 188 bowler, will go along as an alternate in case Sorenson or Darrington stub a toe.

All-Star Pin Finals Will be Telecast

In an effort to bring the finest live bowling to its viewers, WBBM-TV will telecast the final night of the 15th annual All Star bowling tournament at the Chicago Coliseum, Sunday night, Dec. 18, beginning at 10:30 p.m., and running thru the completion of the matches. This tournament brings 224 of the world's greatest bowling experts into competition for the national individual men and women's match game championship. The men will bowl a total of 100 games, and the women 56 games during the ten-day tournament.

The entire tournament will be bowled on a brand new set of 16 lanes built especially into the Coliseum at the cost of some $30,000 for the all star event.

Denver froth 18; AFA, 34.
It's an easy 100 to 1 you missed that score entirely and, still bet- odds that, if you did see it you went right on to the big time results without bothering to ask what AFA might be.

The victory recorded was the first for Uncle Sam's brand new U-nited States Airforce Academy. The academy is the nation's third major military institution. In their debut the air cadets played on a rough practice field. They had no "name" coach. But their fellows paraded in their sky-blue uniforms before 17,000 fans and the least provocation their band broke into "The Wild Blue Yonder." With the Army and Navy yearly football clash one of the great grid attractions of the country for 16, these many years, thought of what a third institution may do when it gets under way makes one ponder. The threat is not immediate and Army and Navy schedules are set well ahead. But the time is surely coming when the Airforce academy will be heard from.

The academy demands extra physical fitness. The lure of flying still is strong in young American blood. It stands to reason that the new institution will attract many a stalwart lad with plenty of gridiron savvy.

The Airforce academy is new, just born, but that does not mean that it will not come of age rapidly in this jet era. Then the Army and Navy, with all their traditions and laurels, may have to mend their knitting.

As there are many of us in middle age who have seen civilization jump from the horse and buggy to proposed space satellites, it might not be too far fetched to assume that someday the program might read, "Space Pilots vs. Moomen" with the Army mule and the Navy goat just looking on.

The academy demands extra physical fitness. The lure of flying still is strong in young American blood. It stands to reason that the new institution will attract many a stalwart lad with plenty of gridiron savvy.

The Airforce academy is new, just born, but that does not mean that it will not come of age rapidly in this jet era. Then the Army and Navy, with all their traditions and laurels, may have to mend their knitting.

As there are many of us in middle age who have seen civilization jump from the horse and buggy to proposed space satellites, it might not be too far fetched to assume that someday the program might read, "Space Pilots vs. Moomen" with the Army mule and the Navy goat just looking on.

Jack Maypole

Denver froth 18; AFA, 34.

It's an easy 100 to 1 you missed that score entirely and, still bet- odds that, if you did see it you went right on to the big time results without bothering to ask what AFA might be.

The victory recorded was the first for Uncle Sam's brand new U-nited States Airforce Academy. The academy is the nation's third major military institution. In their debut the air cadets played on a rough practice field. They had no "name" coach. But their fellows paraded in their sky-blue uniforms before 17,000 fans and the least provocation their band broke into "The Wild Blue Yonder." With the Army and Navy yearly football clash one of the great grid attractions of the country for 16, these many years, thought of what a third institution may do when it gets under way makes one ponder. The threat is not immediate and Army and Navy schedules

Ohio Edison Company recently disclosed its plans for "electronic brain" supervision of 35 steam generators in nine plants across Ohio, including automatic determination of the heat content of the coal.

The 73-year old towboat, Anna S. Cooper, built in 1882, still is hauling coal barges on the Tennessee River to steam plants at Watts Bar and Widows Creek in Tennessee.

Man of Prayer

Lesson for December 18, 1955

SOME people will try to tell you that we can learn nothing from the fact that Jesus was a man of prayer. He was so different from us, they say, that we must not try to imitate him than to imitate Einstein. This is not the way the New Testament looks at it, not the way Christian theology looks at it. Jesus "had to be made like his brethren in every respect," we are told in Hebrew 2:17. The church theologians call Christ "consustantial with us according to his manhood," which is a way of saying that he is every bit as human as we are. With-

The Motive of Prayer

One thing stands out: Jesus' motive or motives for praying must have been far stronger than the motive of most of us. Jesus would go without sleep or rest in order to pray. He, a man who had many friends and loved to have people around him, would withdraw from all human companions, would go far into the hills, would climb a high mountain, just in order to find a place where he could pray without interruption. In short, he took a great deal of trouble to pray. We take less trouble, because we don't feel the strong desire that he felt. But why? What was his motive? It is not so mysterious that we cannot give it a name, though it is too profound for us to fathom it to the depths. It was his heart's desire for close and closer sharing of heart and life with the heart and life of the heavenly Father. Jesus shows no sign of needing to "get right" with God. He was in full harmony to his life's end. But his prayers were an expression of that harmony. The piano tuner makes the strings of the instrument ring true; but the musician then brings out the beauty that is there when all is in tune.

The Manner of Prayer

Dr. W. D. Chamberlain has written a book for plain Christians called "The Manner of Prayer," based on the Lord's Prayer. This is no place to borrow many pages from that fine book. Yet a word should be said about the manner of Jesus' prayer in general. We know that he used to attend the synagogue meetings, and we know that in those meetings formal (what we would call "printed") prayers were used, in which no doubt Jesus would join. But we hear a great deal more about his private prayers, and we can be pretty sure that for these occasions he never took a prayer-book with him. His prayers were personal, individual, they were free, and many of them were fully private, strictly between himself and His Father. This much is clear for our own prayer-practice: whatever formal prayers we may use in church, or whoever may be praying there for us (and with us, if "leading" in prayer means anything), this can be no substitute for personal, private prayer. We must never be tied down to any formula, as if God were something like a bureaucrat who would not consider a communication not in proper form! God wants to know most of all not how we say it but how much we mean it.

The Matter of Prayer

What things is it right to pray for? We can be sure of this much at least: It is always right to pray for the kind of thing which is in harmony with the "Lord's Prayer." (Incidentally, the fact that this prayer appears in more than one form in the gospels shows that it can hardly be right to insist on one set form of words.) Things not mentioned in that prayer, perhaps yes; but things out of line with it, no. Let the reader consider which of these objects of prayer are in line with the Lord's prayer: A promotion in one's job? Greater spiritual strength? The cure of an afflicted loved one? Foreign missions? An unborn child? The President of the United States? The elimination of a rival in love or business?

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tuider of 159th St. are the parents of a son born Dec. 7 in Silver Cross hospital. The baby's mother is the former Anne Brankey. Dean Anderson received a cut on his head while playing at Hadley school last Friday afternoon. He was taken to Silver Cross hospital where three stitches were used to repair the damage and the small boy returned to school Monday.

Matt Wies of Crown Point, Ind., and Peter Wies called on Henry Burch Thursday. The names of Mrs. J. J. Padock and Jerry were unintentionally omitted from the list of guests who attended the King's Daughters' Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Ray Carlson last Thursday.

The Rev. Philip Muth will be hospitalized for surgery during the holiday vacation from his studies at Chicago Seminary. On Dec. 18, there will be the usual Sunday School and church services with a supply minister taking Rev. Muth's place. On Christmas Eve there will be a Christmas program at 7:30 with the Rev. Harold Finley in charge also candy and gifts for the children. On Christmas Day there will be no services. On Jan. 1, Rev. Muth expects to be able to carry on in his usual efficient manner.

Mrs. Tena Krieger, her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Ramsay and son, all of Esterville, Ia., called at the Henry Burch home Wednesday afternoon. They were called to Lockport by the death of Mrs. Krieger's brother, David Murray.

Mrs. Mary Keating spent Sunday and Monday of last week with her daughter, Mrs. H.V. Drewes. Monday, Mrs. Drewes and Mrs. Bruce Anderson were Chicago Christmas shoppers.

A 2-c Jack Loucks had the misfortune to have most of his clothes taken from his locker at Amarillo air base where he is located. Jack expects to be home on furlough at Christmas time.

Mrs. Frank Loucks and Mrs. Reed Burch attended the Christmas meeting of the Prima African Violet club in Lockport Wednesday.

Mrs. A. C. Logan has gone to Joliet for a few days' visit with friends before departing for her new home in Delaware, Ohio. She has been a houseguest in the Willard Rowley home.

The Good Luck camp of Royal Neighbors held their Christmas party in the town hall today. A pot-luck dinner was served at noon, followed by the annual election of officers, a one dollar gift exchange and an hour devoted to sociability. There are no hostesses for this day, but each member brings a prize for the afternoon games.

Mrs. Ted Smith and Mrs. Claude Colegrove entertained Mrs. James Mason of Lockport at dinner in "Little Bit of Sweden" at Aurora Thursday evening in honor of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Holm and son, Billy, have moved into their new home on 143rd St. Frank Milne and Lewis Barr were business visitors in Walnut Saturday.

Predict 1,200 Traffic Deaths Over Holidays

With Christmas and New Year's day both falling on Sunday this year, the Association of Casualty and Surety companies estimate that the two year-end holidays will bring accidental death to 800 people on the nation's streets and highways. Another 400 probably will die in the intervening week, bringing total traffic deaths for the holiday season to 1,200. Don't you be one of them, authorities urge. Thomas N. Boate, manager of the Association's Accident Prevention Department said that officially both holidays extend from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight of the following Monday. "390 people," he said, "will die over the Christmas weekend and 410 more over the New Year's weekend. During that time an additional 30,000 people will be injured in traffic accidents."

"Speed and alcohol, separately or together, will be responsible for a greater than normal number of deaths and injuries. Each will be a contributing factor in more than one-third of all accidents. Other expected causes, in order of their frequency, will be driving on the wrong side of the road, reckless driving, failure to yield the right of way and falling asleep at the wheel.

"The Christmas New Year season, as a time of happiness and celebration, usually brings forth a greater number of parties and informal get-togethers than any other time of the year. The party goer who is over indulgent is in line to kill or be killed on the highway. It should be obvious by now that the person who drinks should not drive."

"Similarly, this holiday season always brings extra traffic and congestion. When a motorist loses his temper, or tries to make up for delays by speeding, it is just a matter of time until he contributes to the traffic toll. "The fact that more than 30,000 American homes will be touched by sorrow this holiday season is a sobering thought. Particularly when a little restraint and self control could avert the bulk of this useless highway misfortune."

Troop 460 under the leadership of Mrs. Thelma Feiwel have completed 16 scrap-books which they are sending with a pair of kindergarten scissors for each book. The Brownies of this troop made leaf-prints as a cover design for this sharing project.
This troop will have a mother's tea Dec. 20. The girls have been busy making Christmas gifts for mother and dad. They will Carol Dec. 23 in the Park-ville area. Let's greet these enthusiastic little girls with a smile and a hearty thank-you.

Troop 97

Troop 336
Troop 336, girls in Intermediate Scouting also have the sharing spirit for this season. With their leader, Mrs. P. Bruckbauer, they each made a toy for a child age 1-5. A new six foot ceremonial tent, has for its purpose the stimulating of the boys to complete more achievements so that they can place their names on the tent at the appropriate place, one of four levels of Cub Scout advancement. The tent was prepared by interested parents; Mr. and Mrs. Major Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. John Naughton, John Shaulis, Alan Verhage and Robert Lillie, assisted by Andrew Bartholomew, cubmaster.
Recognition of achievements by 16 Cub Scouts in this pack was made by the award of Wolf badges to Thomas Albright, Rich and Barton James Dilks, John Dotts, Peter Ellement, Richard Haven, Jonathan Herz, Jerry Jandacka, Green Kent, Brian Lillie, Terry McNamara, Jack Naughton, Dennis Parrish, Michael Pierce, Jack Sehnert and Walter Verhage. In addition, two boys Cecil Drayer and Jerry Jandacka, were graduated to full Boy Scout status.
The Junior Marching award won by the pack at the Fall festival, was presented to the Pack sponsor's representative, Walter Seyffert, commander of the Tinley Park VFW post.

The December Pack meeting, which will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 20 in the Tinley Park school will be devoted to a Christmas party for the members.

Beware of Fire
Christmas isn't the only thing that's on the way. It's also time fires which begin every December and continues through March.
If we announced the ragweed season would begin, hay-fever victims would take to the hills. But the "increased fires" season seems to spur very few people into action.
The reasons why fires increase in the winter are well known. In the home, heating systems, portable heaters and open fires are largely to blame. Most of the fires are preventable. Yet every year the fire loss statistics of the National Board of Fire Underwriters hit the same December-March high.
For almost every fire that occurs—and there are some $45,000 a year—there is at least one more person who finds out the hard way that fires don't always happen to "the other fellow." This year, unless you apply common-sense safety rules, one of those people may be you.

Christmas Seal Sale Needs Aid Say Directors
Half a dollar more and returns from Christmas seal sales in Frankfort township would be $500, according to the report released this week by the Will County Tuberculosis association.
The returns from Frankfort township, which of course includes those from the villages of Frankfort and Mokena, were $499.50, while those for New Lenox township were $448.50. Total for the county so far is $21,009.67 which is substantially less than the amount subscribed to at this time last year, it was said.
William Blaha and Herbert Lambrecht are co-chairmen of the seal campaign in Frankfort township while Roy Pfeiffer is in charge in New Lenox.
The chairman urge that all persons who have not yet sent in their original letters in response to the original letters and the reminders dispatched by the Will county Tuberculosis association, do so at once.

Bottle to Throttle Can be Fatal
If you've had your hand on the bottle keep your foot of the throttle.
This warning was issued the nation's drivers today by the National Safety Council as it opened its annual Christmas safety campaign.
The campaign is aimed at reducing holiday accidents. Special emphasis will be on traffic accidents, which have taken an upward swing this year of about 6 percent. A contributing factor to this increase is an even greater gain in motor vehicle travel.
Heavier travel and the festive spirit of the Christmas season always add to the normal winter hazards of bad weather, slippery roads and added hours of darkness, the Council said.

The Mokena grade school Lights continued their winning ways last week but the heavies fell by the wayside as they suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of Manhattan 41 to 24. This defeat followed the lights one sided triumph of Manhattan 48 to 10 in the seasons second conference game for both teams.

Ford and Kruzich led Mokena to its route of Manhattan as they scored 34 points between them, with Ford gaining honors with 20.

Manhattan completely outclassed Mokena in the heavyweight game, as their height led to superior rebounding under both boards. Peterson scored 14 points to pace the winners while Haehnlein again led Mokena's scoring with 11 points. The game was played at Manhattan on Thursday.

The following evening Mokena entertained Orland Park in a non-conference contest. The lights scored their third straight victory by blasting a 40 to 14 victory. The heavies bounced back to victory trail with a hard fought 26 to 9 win to complete the double success for Mokena.

Orland's lights were regarded as the strongest team to meet Mokena thus far this year. The game was close throughout the first half with Mokena holding only a slim margin of 8 points. The second half became a rout when Orland's Press failed and Kruzich and Powers repeatedly drove the length of the floor for baskets. Ford was again high man with 11. Kruzich had 10, and Powers 8.

Haehnlein scored 12 points as the heavies took a 14 to 4 lead and never were headed in the second half. Lorenz chipped in with 6 points and played an outstanding game of rebounding.

The lightweights victories put them into a first place tie with Frankfort and Laraway. The tie with Frankfort will be broken this Friday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 because the two teams meet at Mokena in the last game before the Christmas recess.

Lincoln-Way High Wrestling Team Loses to Cadets of Morgan Park

The Lincoln-Way mat men travelled over to Morgan Park Military academy Tuesday and came home with a 44-10 defeat. It was by no means a rout for Morgan, because the Knights put on an excellent fight.

Little Kenny Zitter lost a close decision to Walker 3-1. Then Woody Zitter avenged his brother's defeat by pinning Holton early in the second period. Eddie Zitter fought doggedly to keep from being pinned. Time after time it looked as if Bowden had him but he would just barely keep from getting pinned. Ed lost 12-0.

Lincoln-Way got a chance to see Regen whom Morgan Park followers say will win the state. He pinned Bill Noble but it was the longest time this year he had been on the mat. Again Jim Lee put on a good show of speed but Witt stuck with him and finally pinned him in the middle of the past period.

Monday John Duer tried out for the team. He put on such an impressive performance that he got into the Morgan meet with only one day's experience.

Once again John Weber pinned his opponent. He put Madson away in 1:13 of the first period.

In the heavyweight division Bill Smith was brought up from the B team to wrestle Ellis, his 260 pound opponent. Altho Smith stayed in all the way, Ellis' superior weight helped him to gain the decision, 6-3.

The B team didn't do too badly. Four men who had never wrestled before got in, Werner, Tichelaar, Fish and McCure. Mickey Werner lost a 7-2 decision that was fairly close. Ter-

New Lenox Grade Wins 30-29 in Two Overtimes

The Frankfort grade school heavyweight basketball team lost a thriller to New Lenox last Thursday night in the Haven school gym, 30 to 29, in two overtime periods.

The Frankfort lightweights won the curtain raiser 25 to 10. In the heavyweight encounter Frankfort's defeat could be attributed to too much zeal that resulted in fouls. The majors began fouling early and even in the first quarter, Coach LeRoy Wright had turned to his lightweight string for four subs in an endeavor to save his regulars for the later stages of the game. But by the time the fourth quarter rolled around three of the regulars had fouled out and Frankfort finished the game with two heavyweights and three of the pony squad on the floor.

Frankfort had a 10-point lead at half time 16 to 6 and at the close of the third quarter the score was Frankfort 21, New Lenox 15. New Lenox kept whittling away at this lead until just before the final gun, when they evened it up and the count stood at 27-all as time ran out.

In the first overtime period New Lenox scored first to make it 29-27 only to see Dave Robinson, a Frankfort guard, tie it up at 29-29 and that was the way it was when the overtime ended.

In the second overtime Frankfort came close but couldn't connect. New Lenox also failed to tally a basket but rang up one point on a free toss and that one point was the winner, the final score being 30-29.

The Frankfort heavies have now won a game and lost a game. Each of the overtimes ran three minutes.

The game this season, while the lightweights have won both their encounters, their first games were against Elwood.

The Frankfort teams will come to Mokena tomorrow night for a twin bill in the grade school gym. The pony contest is scheduled for 7:30 with the heavyweight game to follow.

Eagle Matmen Lose to Joliet and Rich Teams

The Eagles wrestling team was over-run by a very strong Joliet team 13-37. Individual winners for Sandburg were Janulis, W. Semetis, and Dumney. Both Semetis and Dumney won by pinning their opponents.

Sandburg also lost to Rich, in a closely contested contest 24-28. Both squads won six individual matches but Rich garnered two more wins with pins then did the Eagles. Individual winners for Sandburg were: Liston, W. Semetis, Blaha, Boore, Johandes, and Dumney. Liston, Johandes, and Dumney pinned their opponents.

Reavis will be here for a meet tonight at 7:30 and Saturday the Eagle grapplers will travel to Oak Park for a 2:00 p.m. match.

The individual results of the matches were as follows:

The past weekend was a very thrilling but unprofitable week-end for the Lincoln-Way Knights. First, on Friday night they had the misfortune of meeting up with Bill Lindsay and Bremen and fell 79-53. Then on Saturday eve they ran into a tough, well-balanced Mooseheart quintet and lost this encounter also, 84-67 in a high scoring duel.

To say the Knights got a bad start Friday night would be putting it mildly indeed. Before they knew what had happened, a Bremen rally had run up a 17-3 bulge in the first quarter. In the second quarter, Bill Lindsay, the Braves' All-Conference guard, cascaded 14 markers thru the hoops and the Knights were behind at half time by a 44-18 score.

However in the third period the Knights settled down and narrowed the margin to 17 points and were behind 55-38 at the close of this period. The quarter was highlighted by fine rebounding and free throw marksmanship by Paul Padzuikas, L-W's 6'5" center. But it was too late for the Knights and they lost 79-53. Bill Lindsay tossed in 34 tallies for Bremen and the Knights' Red Wade scorched the nets with 21 markers. Not far behind was Danny Wondrasek with 15.

Saturday night the Lincoln-Way squad traveled to Mooseheart and played one of the best teams they've played yet. Once again they experienced a rough first half and a good second half. At the intermission they were down 41-26. Then in the third stanza, the Knights played the best ball they have played this season as they cut the margin to 10 points. However, they fell back again when Mark Schellenberg fouled out and eventually lost 84-67.

Although the Knights ran up a lofty 67 points, no man scored 20 or more points. It was a team effort with Heidrich scoring 15, Wade 14, Wondrasek 13, Schellenberg 10, Studnick 8, and Padzuikas 6. This may indicate the Knights are pulling together as a unit and that better days are coming.

The Little Knights (Frosh-Soph) saw victory within easy reach Saturday, only to see it snatched away by a determined Mooseheart squad. Lincoln-Way led all the way, 9-8 at the half. However, in the third quarter Ron Fredin and Dave Zechlin fouled out. Shortly after Hank Jessen fouled out too and the Red Ramblers ran wild. They burned up the baskets with 26 point in the fourth period to the Knights' meager 4. The final count was 55-39. Ron Fredin led the Knights scoring with 16.

The evening preceding, the Little Knights were run over by an extremely strong Bremen club. Ron Fredin showed up with the only silver lining in the 55-24 trampling by scoring 13 points.

The Knights teams have a really rough week-end ahead when they encounter Rich and Carl Sandburg.

Reelection Chapman to be Candidate for Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman, Republican, of Springfield, has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election in 1956, subject to nomination in the April 10 primary.

Chapman, widely known Illinois attorney, who was elected lieutenant governor in 1952, announced his candidacy in a speech delivered before the Republican Women's club of Sangamon county, Springfield.

He stated the office of lieutenant governor is something more than a stand-by emergency role to pinch hit for the governor when he is out of the State, and that the position has many more important functions, the most vital of which is being the presiding officer of the biennial sessions of the Illinois state senate.

Another responsibility, which he termed a most welcome one, was the task of "promoting friendship and respect for the Republican party in Illinois." In this connection Chapman said that in the first three years of his initial term he has addressed some 500 public meetings of Illinois citizens, rallies, conventions etc., many times as the personal representative of Gov. William G. Stratton.

"I am the first lieutenant governor in the history of Illinois who has devoted his entire time to his position," Gov. Chapman asserted. "I took a leave of absence from my law office in January, 1953, and since then have given all my time to the duties of lieutenant governor."

Among the testimonials cited by Chapman was one from veteran State Senator Everett R. Peters, chairman of the state budgetary commission and State Senate Committee on Committees, describing Chapman as "the ablest lieutenant governor which Illinois has had in the last 20 years at least."

Chapman cited the fact that he has operated his office in a highly economical manner; first by voluntarily requesting a $2,000 reduction in his budget as compared to that of his predecessor, and second, by returning to the state treasury $11,000 of his appropriation for personal services, a savings of over 40 per cent in his budget for that item.

U. S. Army Engineers believe that by 1960 as much coal will move on the Ohio River for industrial use alone as moves today for all uses. In 1953 about 31.7 million tons of industrial coal moved on that river, out of a total Ohio River movement of 62 million tons.

YOUTH SPEAKS

By Suzanne Watkins
Grade 7

Pupils of Mrs. Florence Phillips, fourth grade gave a puppet show on Dec. 2 for the enjoyment of the room. The show was called "Hammer Trouble." Pupils were made from socks. Diane Zawadzki, Shirley Farmer, Carol Neuhausen, and Thomas Watkins worked the puppets.

The room is also working on a Christmas program. Linda Coley made the stable where Christ was born. Steven Jacobs constructed a peep show telling the Christmas story. The boys and girls are learning the facts and fables of Christmas. They are also studying how Christmas is celebrated in foreign countries.

Mrs. Ada Schellhase's fifth grade class is learning to take notes on radio programs. They also are listening to a new radio program. It is called "Sounds of Science." They are learning to divide by two numbers by watching film strips.

Sixth grade boys and girls are making hot pads in art. They are making these as gifts for their mothers on Christmas. It takes several weeks to complete them. The students are drawing animals on the hot pads. First they have to draw the animal on a piece of paper, then it is traced on to another piece of paper and colored. When they finish coloring it, it is traced on to a hot pad of corrugated cork and painted. After they finish painting it and letting it dry, they shellac the pad and take it home.

The Tinley Park Public school helps and patrol boys went roller skating at the Tinley Park roller rink on Thursday, Dec. 8. It is one of many trips sponsored by the school as a reward for helping in a very successful safety campaign. The boys and girls skated from 1 until 3 o'clock. Lynden DeYoung, patrol supervisor, and Mr. William Harris, principal, went with the group.

Room 301, a fifth grade at the Tinley Park school, is making a Christmas scene for their windows. The children are making it from brown transparent paper. Students Linda Hazekimp and Frank LaRocco, moved to another town. Chris Flor is taking the place of Frank LaRocco to represent the room at the student council meetings.

Under the direction of Mrs. Zahler, 7th grade students at the Tinley Park school are making pop corn bowls in art class. The students are designing border designs for the bowls. Each student brought a bowl from home. Then, using the bowl as a mold, they place papier-mache inside the bowl. When the papier-mache dries they will take it out of the bowl. The next step is painting the papier-mache bowl. The students are going to give the bowls to their mothers for Christmas.

Grade 8

The two eighth grade classes of Tinley Park school under the direction of Mrs. M. Zahler art teacher, are making stained glass windows.

These windows will be made of black construction paper and oil treated newspaper instead of lead and glass. A religious design is first sketched and then enlarged on the newspaper paper. It is then painted with water color and treated with linseed oil. The design is cut out of black construction paper with the color spaces blank and the dividing in the black paper to represent the lead. The construction paper is then pasted on to newspaper paper.

After their completion, the designs may be placed in a window so the light may shine thru.

Members of the Tinley Park school Girl's chorus presented a program of Christmas music at the W.S.C.S. general meeting, at the Methodist church, on Dec. 7.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jacquelyn Brethauer, the girls sang "Hark How the Bells," "Gesu Bambino," "Santa Claus is Comin' To Town" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

A special quartette consisting of Fran Swisher, Sharon Jochum, Howard Wehr, and Tom Blount, sang "Angels We Have Heard on High."

The accompanists were Sharon Jochum and Donita Herre. Afterward the zodiac officer, Mrs. Harold Zosab invited the girls and Mrs. Brethauer to stay for coke and cupcakes.

Then there was the diner in a Chinese restaurant who, when he opened his fortune cookie, read, "Don't eat the soup. (Signed) A Friend."

Biology Club News

By Penny Spievak
The Biology club was organized this year with the help of the sponsor, Charles Ellerman, to promote a general interest in the biological sciences and to acquaint its member with the new and different aspects of living matter. Even more than this, it was organized to help the students enjoy learning biology.

The members have found ways of learning about things of special interest to them thru club projects. Some of the projects are raising bees, preparing slides of animal tissues and mounting animal skeletons for the school collection and trapping and raising animals for study.

The first field trip planned was a frog hunting expedition scheduled for November 5, but due to circumstances beyond our control, it was postponed to a later date.

Other trips have been planned by the club for the very near future.

Money must be raised by the club as a whole through concessions such as those at the Chinese Carnival or at basketball games.

The Biology club is open for membership at any time of the year, and to anyone interested. Mr. Ellerman, our fun-loving moderator, or any of the club officers would be happy to explain more about its activities. We all hope that by next year the membership will be greatly increased. There are about thirty members at the present time.

Riding Club

Members of the Riding club attended the International Livestock Exposition and horse show Dec. 3. They arrived at the International Amphitheater about 10:30 A.M. and spent the next few hours tramping all over the enormous building, looking over the exhibits.

At 1:00 they all wearily gathered in the balcony seats for the matinee performance of the society horse show. Fine horses and horsemen from all parts of the country were put through their paces in the exciting events during the afternoon.

Future Homemakers

The fresh-soph chapter of the Future Homemakers of America met on Tuesday, Dec. 6 in the gym. The temporary chairman, Betty Lichtenwalter, called the meeting to order. Due to the separation of F.H.A., the fresh-soph group did not have any officers. They were elected at that time as follows: Betty Lichtenwalter, president; Beverly Mundt, vice president; Jo Ann Harris, secretary; Doris Bobzin, treasurer; Shirley Wahl, parliamentarian; Shirley Weber, historian; Jean Roswell, projects chairman; Sheila Bennett, public relations chairman; Carol Hohenstein, recreation chairman.

These officers attended a tea given by the Peotone F.H.A. Dec. 9 in Peotone high school. The date for the Christmas party was set for the 20th during the activity period in the Home Economics room. Committees were appointed as follows:

Refreshment, Kathy Cooper (chairman), Pat Reed, Ann Hobbs, Jean Ann Meyer and decoration—Jo Ann Mundt and Petra Reinhard.

Postal Service Seeks Recruits

The first nationwide effort to attract desirable new career employees into the postal service was launched Monday by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. Red, white and blue posters outlining higher salaries now offered and other benefits of postal employment, will be displayed for 30 days, in the lobbies of approximately 10,000 of the largest post offices and in 3,000 communities on 16,000 Air Force recruiting bill-boards.

The posters list these facts about postal employment.

1. Starting pay of $70 per week -- $1.82 per hour.
2. Automatic annual raises to $85 per week, $2.19 per hour.
3. Longevity increases to $90 per week, $2.34 per hour.
4. Two and a half to (5) weeks paid vacation annually.
5. Paid sick leave.
6. Eight paid holidays each year.
7. Retirement plan.

Aluminum production creates a constantly growing market for bituminous coal for steam generation of power, as illustrated by the fact that two new plants now in the planning stages in West Virginia and Pennsylvania will each require around 1,000,000 tons annually.

Within the past month or so the farmers in Green Garden have had trouble with some of their pets and farm dogs of being poisoned. Complaints have been received where at least 4 dogs have died, some they were able to locate on their premises as sick and within a short time would be dead.

All were symptoms of poisoning. Why or who has done this, is a mystery to all. It has happened in different places but all too often, has been seen as a prank of someone but who is it or why it is being done no one seems to know.

The Busy Homemakers met Dec. 7 at the Arch Inn for a pleasant dinner, with 14 members and one guest, and the home advisor present. Mrs. Ruth Mozzi presided over a short business meeting, when reports were given and the year books were filled out. Mrs. Robert Guzik gave the major lesson on Dressing for the occasion: Mrs. Joe Scott and Mrs. Carl Johnson read articles on Christmas and Mrs. Art Nieland led in carol singing. A gift exchange followed. The next meeting, Jan. 4 will be in the home of Mrs. Ferdinand Scheer.

Carpentier Favors One-shot Ticket for Traffic Law Violators

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier says a proposed uniform traffic ticket and complaint would be an important step forward in the interests of traffic safety.

Use of the standard form would help to identify dangerous drivers at the state level by simplifying record work on the local level, Carpentier said.

The uniform ticket and complaint was developed under the leadership of the traffic section of the American Bar Association working in conjunction with representatives of the Drivers License Department of Secretary Carpentier's office.

In on operation, Mr. Carpentier said, the new form will provide separate records for office, the court, the arresting officer and the individual arrested.

"I am happy to see this quality of coordination among the police departments, the courts and the secretary of state's office—a real example of teamwork for traffic safety," Secretary Carpentier said.

"Complete reporting of traffic violation convictions is the very heart of the drivers license law, because it is the channel thru which we find dangerous drivers before they cause tragedies," he declared.

"I am pleased to be able to say that cooperation by local officials is steadily increasing, and as it increases, so will the effectiveness of our program to save lives on our highways," Secretary Carpentier said. "In our office, we propose to do everything possible to streamline our procedures so the work on the local level will be easier and simpler."
